

It is the relationship that heals.

-Irvin Yalom, MD

Excellence in healthcare depends on strong engagement, clear communications, and useful data.

This, is a morphii. It might look like an emoji, or a cartoon, but it's neither. It's much more.

It is the face of a new, patented system designed to allow patients, healthcare providers, administrators, and family members to communicate and understand one another more effectively, and to generate critical self-report data for healthcare analytics.
